NTENT to reach a broader plane,
More definite knowledge to obtain.

UST needs he now begins to feel,
And bravely works at menial toil
His ends to meet.

IND providence with him endowed
A frame full able to withstand
The labor of his brain and hand.

ATIN and Greek he masters now;
With purpose firm, "bound on bound,"
He ascends the ladder, round by round.

ET not content
For him a single State to represent,
The people of the Nation call him, to be their President.

ENITH is reached! the topmost round! fame complete! fortune how great!
Freemen, fifty millions strong,
Him their ruler inaugurate.

last sad fate! the vile assassin's ball
The wise, good man has slain,
And all the world, with sorrow great,
Mourns his fall.
